Your Teenage Years

Describe yourself as a teenager:

Very focused on being active and spending time with friends

Your favorite subject(s) in school and why:

History. It is amazing to hear sorties and tales from the past. I found that I would get engrossed in different regions culture and history and that there was never an end in sight on what you could learn.

Your least favorite subject(s) in school and why:

English. I found writing essays and having strict reading schedules very difficult. I enjoy reading, but at a slower pace.

The activities you were involved in and why:

Sports. The team aspect kept me in sports. Having your friends push you and you push them made you feel amazing when you accomplished a long awaited goal.

The most important influence on you and why:

Home room teacher. He always took the time to listen and speak to me. He was a young adult, so he felt like an older brother that I could look up to.

In comparison to others you were:

Athletic and reserved
