Your Childhood Years

Describe yourself as a child: I was a very happy child. I loved to play loved school and with my friends. I was fairly well behaved. I was very creative and I always tried to be helpful. I had a great work ethic and tried to do my best all the time. I was in good health hardly ever went to the doctor.

What was it like growing up in your family? I loved it for the most part but like anything else it had its ups and downs. I lived the typical childhood. I was in the same school for all of elementary school and was home schooled after that. My parents tried to put me in high school but there was a lot of gang activity and they were fearful so they pulled me out again.

What is your earliest memory as a child? When my dad took me to the beach and taught me to swim by putting me on a surf board and taking me out on the water. I was scared but he helped me through it and then I got off the board once I learned how to move my hands and feet and was swimming.

What problems did you have as a child? No problems really I was pretty well adjusted and other than allergies to peas and the occasional cold and flu I was great.
